

Fredag d. 23. november 2018 Århus Sygehus – DNC Auditoriet, bygning 10,
 Nørrebrogade 44, 8000 Århus C

Symposium: The impact of what we tell patients: potentielle nocebo effekter i kommunikationen mellem klinikere og patienter med smerte

08.45 – 09.30	Registrering og morgenmad	-
09.30 – 09.45	Velkommen	Morten Høgh, SMOF & Hanne Wurtzen, DSF
09.45 – 10.30	Placebo and Nocebo Effects – Assessment and Clinical Implications	Prof. Lene Vase, Aarhus University, DK
10.30 – 11.15	Beliefs Underlying Pain-related Fear and How They Evolve	Ass. Prof. Sam Bunzli, University of Melbourne, AUS
11.15 – 11.45	Kaffepause	-
11.45 – 12.30	'Patient education and health literacy	Prof. Harriët Wittink, University of Applied Sciences, Utrecht, NL
12.30 – 13.30	Frokost (Gourmet sandwich og 1 sodavand)	-
13.30 – 14.15	The Impact of What We Tell Patients – Clinical Implications	Ass. Prof. Tonny Elmoose Andersen, University of Southern Denmark, DK
14.15 – 14.30	The influence of expectations on the hypoalgesic effects of exercise	Henrik Bjarke Vaegter, Postdoc, University of Southern Denmark, DK
14.30 – 15.00	Kaffepause og kage	-
15.00 – 15.45	Manifestations and Mechanisms of Nocebo Effects in the Treatment of Pain	Ass Prof. Luana Colloca, University of Maryland, USA
15.45 – 16.00	Diskussion of afrunding	Morten Høgh, SMOF & Hanne Wurtzen, DSF